The aim of the Leeds Beckett Repository is to provide open access to our research, as required by funder policies and permitted by publishers and copyright law.

The Leeds Beckett repository holds a wide range of publications, each of which has been checked for copyright and the relevant embargo period has been applied by the Research Services team.

We operate on a standard take-down policy. If you are the author or publisher of an output and you would like it removed from the repository, please contact us and we will investigate on a case-by-case basis.

Each thesis in the repository has been cleared where necessary by the author for third party copyright. If you would like a thesis to be removed from the repository or believe there is an issue with copyright, please contact us on openaccess@leedsbeckett.ac.uk and we will investigate on a case-by-case basis.

Preparing for a multitrack life-career: Working and living in an age of longevity

Lawrence Lecture Theatre, Bournemouth University,
Talbot Campus, Fern Barrow, BH12 5BB

Thursday 2 November 2017, 5.15–6.45pm

Dr Gaby Pfeifer (Postdoctoral Research Fellow, Brighton and Sussex Medical School, University of Sussex)

We live in an age of longevity, where a life expectancy of up to 100 years is becoming the norm, and, for many of us, this may involve having to work longer to support ourselves financially.

However, work itself is becoming more diverse and flexible, offering an exciting variety of careers and opportunities for professional and personal growth across the lifespan. How can young people prepare for a multitrack life-career in view of a greater life expectancy?

And how do we need to restructure our social and working lives to retain a healthy work-life balance in the context of an extended work life?

Pre-event refreshments from 5.15pm with the talk and discussion from 5.30–6.15pm and networking and remaining refreshments from 6.15–6.45pm.

This is a free event and all are welcome to attend. Prior booking is required as places are limited.
