Show/Exhibition (Supplemental Material)

Research Practice: Dirty Bottom (2015-16). This artist's film explores the world underneath a Series 3 Landrover, across sites in London, UK. The film is part of a transdisciplinary practice that considers Embodied methodologies, gender and masculine identities as a process of making. Artists Lewis Paul: location London UK.

The aim of the Leeds Beckett Repository is to provide open access to our research, as required by funder policies and permitted by publishers and copyright law.

The Leeds Beckett repository holds a wide range of publications, each of which has been checked for copyright and the relevant embargo period has been applied by the Research Services team.

We operate on a standard take-down policy. If you are the author or publisher of an output and you would like it removed from the repository, please contact us and we will investigate on a case-by-case basis.

Each thesis in the repository has been cleared where necessary by the author for third party copyright. If you would like a thesis to be removed from the repository or believe there is an issue with copyright, please contact us on openaccess@leedsbeckett.ac.uk and we will investigate on a case-by-case basis.

UNIVERSITY OF

12 - 31 October 2015

You are invited to attend a specially commissioned art exhibition, and film screening. The exhibition will bring together alumni and representatives who have shaped the future of creative industries in the UK and informed the pioneering role of the University of Westminster in creative and media education in the UK and internationally.

The exhibition, film screening, and a range of documentary material will give rare insights into the history of art and creative education at the University of Westminster and its predecessor organisations.

The exhibition will reference the past, represent the present, and flag future directions. It will include twenty-five of our best artists drawn from our staff and student alumni, and cover a variety of media. Artists include: Charming Baker, David Bate; Rut Blee Luxemburg; Tom Corby; Alison Craighead; Shezad Dawood; Des Hughes; Malcolm Le Grice; Oscar Murillo; Joshua Oppenheimer; Lewis Paul; Clare Twomey; Keith Wilson.
