The aim of the Leeds Beckett Repository is to provide open access to our research, as required by funder policies and permitted by publishers and copyright law.

The Leeds Beckett repository holds a wide range of publications, each of which has been checked for copyright and the relevant embargo period has been applied by the Research Services team.

We operate on a standard take-down policy. If you are the author or publisher of an output and you would like it removed from the repository, please contact us and we will investigate on a case-by-case basis.

Each thesis in the repository has been cleared where necessary by the author for third party copyright. If you would like a thesis to be removed from the repository or believe there is an issue with copyright, please contact us on openaccess@leedsbeckett.ac.uk and we will investigate on a case-by-case basis.

'One Way Or Another II' by Lesley Logue, Eric Great-Rex, Sarah Taylor & Lewis Paul at Smart Gallery!

posted by moc83 on May 20, 2013

One Way Or Another II is the current exhibition at Smart Gallery and features a range of work from Lesley Logue, Eric Great-Rex, Sarah Taylor & Lewis Paul. The artists were brought together by Logue who wanted to look at the ideas and process of her contemporaries, staging a show based around unfinished works which can still comfortably sit in a gallery setting.

The works cross many areas including sculpture, print & ceramics, all mixed together across the 2 rooms at Smart Gallery. I really love the bear sculpture in the window, complete with its bullet holes and shooting markers, standing tall in the window silently watching the world outside drift by! Another favourite is the wicker boat. Its such a unique shape, instantly recognisable and yet due to the materials completely unpractical for taking out on the water.

The show is running from the 4th of May until the 9th of June so if you're looking for something to do then pop along to Smart, have a chat with whoever is looking after the gallery that day and see some cool work! You can also find out a little bit from the artists in the short video below!
