The aim of the Leeds Beckett Repository is to provide open access to our research, as required by funder policies and permitted by publishers and copyright law.

The Leeds Beckett repository holds a wide range of publications, each of which has been checked for copyright and the relevant embargo period has been applied by the Research Services team.

We operate on a standard take-down policy. If you are the author or publisher of an output and you would like it removed from the repository, please contact us and we will investigate on a case-by-case basis.

Each thesis in the repository has been cleared where necessary by the author for third party copyright. If you would like a thesis to be removed from the repository or believe there is an issue with copyright, please contact us on openaccess@leedsbeckett.ac.uk and we will investigate on a case-by-case basis.

Learning Spaces - Introduction

- ‘New’ learning spaces on Leeds Met campuses;
- By ‘new’ we mean a £2m capital investment from HEFCE – not a new ‘concept’;
- Research-informed evaluation til 2008;
- In particular, OBH.

Learning Spaces - Introduction

- Motivation behind the space
 - CETL funding
 - Achieving CETL outcomes
 - Embedding enterprise education
 - Providing conducive environments for enterprising and entrepreneurial settings

Learning Spaces - Evaluation

- Exploratory research – non-traditional spaces;
- Landscape of language
- What people can/have done in the spaces;
- How are the spaces being received i.e. positive or negative?
- Is it purely enterprise education activities that are taking place in the spaces?

Learning Spaces – How is it used for/by ‘students’

- Promotes active learning and teaching
- Affects students’ engagement in a positive way
- Valuable and integral support to classical learning and teaching methods
- Adaptable to diverse learning modes
- Offers blended learning opportunities
- Opportunity for student’s to experience a wider range of assessment, learning and teaching modes

Learning Spaces - + / -

- Potentially provide the impetus for the design of evolving pedagogy
- Concerns about under-utilisation i.e. 'flexible ambiguity'
- Leading to Staff development issues
- Concerns re physical layout – one size doesn't fit all
- Concerns re technological equipment
- Is the space for informal or formal learning?
- Do students own the space i.e. social area?

Learning Spaces - Feedback

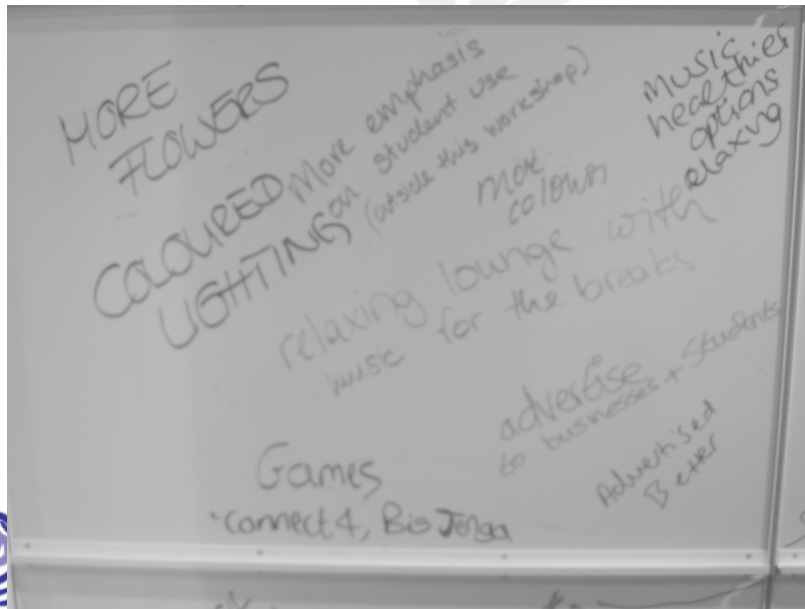

- In the context of enterprise education spaces are showing to be fit for purpose i.e.
 - Enables student-centred learning
 - Enables group work and activities
 - Real world business scenarios i.e. role play interviews; the apprentice/dragon's den etc
 - Business simulations/dissertation clinics
 - Enterprise summer schools; and
 - The application and study of the theory of enterprise and entrepreneurial behaviour

Learning Spaces - Examples

- Best example to date – Enterprise Concepts
 - Year 3 Events Management students studying ‘Entrepreneurship & Business Development’;
 - Used the space for enterprise projects, but also;
 - Gave feedback on their use of the space
